

COURSE UNIT (MODULE) DESCRIPTION

Course unit (module) title	Code
Cultural Studies

Lecturer(s)	Department(s) where the course unit (module) is delivered
Coordinator: Prof. dr. Almantas Samalavicius Other(s):	Faculty of Philology 5 Universiteto St., LT-01513 Vilnius Tel. +370 5 268 7207 E-mail flf@flf.vu.lt

Study cycle	Type of the course unit (module)
2nd	Compulsory

Mode of delivery	Period when the course unit (module) is delivered	Language(s) of instruction
face-to-face	Autumn semester	English

Requirements for students
Prerequisites: Literary Theory, West-European Literary History	Additional requirements (if any): Proficient English

Course (module) volume in credits	Total student's workload	Contact hours	Self-study hours
5	140	40	100

Purpose of the course unit (module): programme competences to be developed To develop the understanding of the purposes, scope and methods of cultural studies; to be able to distinguish cultural studies approach from other academic (more conventional) fields of culture research; to be able to apply theoretical knowledge to practical analysis of cultural issues. Ability to interpret cultural „texts“ critically is communicated while studying the subject matter. This course makes a distinction between cultural studies and other areas (like cultural history, cultural anthropology or cultural sociology) and examines the wide set of methods and approaches borrowed from other disciplines as well as interaction and overlapping with media studies. Ideological basis of viewing culture is being studies in relation to contemporary forms where ideology structures certain discourses and meanings. The most essential issues in cultural studies and ways of analysing them are introduced in the class and through reading sources
Learning outcomes of the course unit (module)	Teaching and learning methods	Assessment methods
Students will be able to apply knowledge in academic discourse and outside it; will develop the ability to integrate knowledge and handle complexity, and formulate judgements;	The students are strongly advised to read and study texts from the Primary (Compulsory) list and make presentations on the required subjects/issues. In addition to these primary texts, students are expected to compile a bibliography of critical and theoretical works which they find necessary to resort to for reference. Discussion, presentation, interpretative strategies, critical approach	Contribution to class discussion, presentation of examination paper.
Students will be able apply their knowledge and	Academic research (source understanding, and problem solving abilities in new or unfamiliar environments within broader (or multidisciplinary) contexts related to their field of study;	research, systematization of information), analytical methods, critical reasoning.

They will be able communicate their conclusions, and the knowledge and rationale underpinning these, to specialist and non-specialist audiences clearly and unambiguously;	Analysis of the text, interpretation, presentation, contribution to class discussion.
They will have developed the learning skills to allow them to continue to study in a manner that may be largely self-directed or autonomous.

Content: breakdown of the topics	Contact hours						Self-study work: time and assignments
	Lectures	Tutorials	Seminars	Exercises	Laboratory work	Internship/work placement	Contact hours	Self-study hours	Assignments
1. Cultural studies and the study of culture. Origins of cultural studies and broadening concept of culture, relations with other critical academic discourses. The rise of cultural studies in U.K. and their evolution in other cultural contexts.	6						6	10	doing home-reading of compulsory literature relevant to issues discussed. Giving questions and comments.
2. Strategies and interdisciplinary methods employed in cultural studies. Encoding and decoding. The role of semiotics. Textual analysis and cultural studies.	6						6	10	doing home-reading of compulsory literature relevant to the issues discussed. Giving questions and comments.
3. Concepts and theories of mass culture and the alternative approach to popular culture offered by cultural studies. Analysis of media, texts and implied/disseminated ideology.	6						6	10	doing home-reading of compulsory literature relevant to the issues discussed. Giving questions and comments.
4. The concept of popular culture and popular music. The analysis of the impact of advertising industry and its textual/visual strategies. The ideology of advertising.	6						6	10	reading the compulsory literature, giving questions and comments on the subject.
5. Culture and globalization from the perspective of cultural studied. Interaction between economic and cultural globalization: discussion of the variety of critical concepts. The rise of global media and ideology of neoliberalism.	6						6	10	reading compulsory literature, giving questions and comments on the subject.
6. Seminar I. Movies, TV and Transmission of Ideology.			2				2	10	Reading the relevant critical material, and making a presentation on the chosen topic
7. Seminar II. Cultural Globalisation and its Local Consequences.			2				2	10	Reading the relevant critical material, and making a presentation on the chosen topic

8. Seminar III. Advertising and the Culture of Consumption			2				2	10	Reading the relevant critical material, and making a presentation on the chosen topic
9. Seminar IV. Celebrities, Media and Popular Consciousness			2				2	10	Reading the relevant critical material, and making a presentation on the chosen topic
10. Seminar V. The Rise of Visuality and Its Cultural Consequences.			2				2	10	Reading the relevant critical material, and making a presentation on the chosen topic
Total			10				40	100

Assessment strategy	Weight, %	Deadline	Assessment criteria
It is required to read all books on the Compulsory Reading List (not their summaries or plot descriptions available online). Assessment requirements: 70 % seminar attendance is compulsory.		Throughout the term	A student is allowed no more than 30 percent of unexcused absences. Students with more than 30 percent of unexcused absences are not eligible for the exam. Evaluation is made taking into consideration correct application of sources, their analytical discussion and ability to draw individual conclusions
A cumulative grade		Throughout the course	A cumulative grade formula: 70 % written test + 30 % performance at seminars: seminar presentation, participation in the discussion
Examination is graded on a 10 point scale		Upon reading and marking the exam papers	Assessment criteria: Correct application of critical sources – 30% Logical and plausible development of argument – 30% Ability to form conclusions – 20% Language proficiency - 20%

Author	Year of publication	Title	Issue of a periodical or volume of a publication	Publishing place and house or web link
Compulsory reading
Simon During, (ed.)	2007	The Cultural Studies Reader		London: Routledge
Jessica Evans and Stuart Hall	1994	Visual Culture: the Reader		London: Sage
John Storey	2011	Cultural Studies and the Study of Popular Culture		London: Routledge
Optional reading
Raymond Williams	1983	Culture		Glasgow: Fontana
Fred Inglis	1999	Cultural Studies		London: Sage
Steven Best and Douglas Kellner	2001	The Postmodern Adventure: Science, Technology and Cultural Studies		London: Routledge
Paul Hodkinson	2011	Media, Culture and Society		London: Routledge

John Fiske	2011	Television Culture		London: Routledge
------------	------	---------------------------	--	-------------------