

2021 NCCU ISS International July 1 – 31 Summer School

NCCU ISS

Aiming to cultivate the global competence of young leaders, National Chengchi University (NCCU) first organized its International Summer School (ISS) in 2009. We view July and August as a valuable time for international students to learn Chinese and adapt to the differences between the semester and term systems of Taiwan and abroad.

As one of the most reputed universities in the fields of humanities, social sciences, and East-Asian studies, we offer 4-week Mandarin course and 9 English-taught academic courses for 2021 summer program.

NCCU ISS offers virtual courses and optional excursions in the 2021 program, to allow participants with various budgets, interests and cultural backgrounds to discover the unique charms of Taiwanese and Chinese cultures.

COURSE TOPICS & CONTENTS

In 2021, NCCU ISS invites The College of Liberal Arts and the International Master's Program in Asia-Pacific Studies (IMAS) to design two major program cores to give participants a panoramic view of multiple facets of Taiwan society as well as its position in international society.

Course topic names and details listed below will be subject to change.
