WHY SWEDEN?

A TRUE INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Sweden is a country of contrasts. It combines the simplicity of a small town with the dynamism of a big city. Known for its nature, sustainability and creativity, it is also a great place to find international perspectives. You will get the chance to see some of the world’s top fashion designers like Cavalli and Balenciaga, among many others.

Equality and diversity are central to Swedish society. Sustainability and the environment are in focus. Sweden is known for its clean air and environment, which is why many people choose to live here.

The summer school is an excellent framework to succeed in your studies abroad. The learning environment will provide you with a supportive and friendly environment from your teachers, small student groups and a supportive learning community. A combination of activities such as lecture-based input, seminars and study visits. Dedicated staff will support you through your study stay.

Entrepreneurial and international

You will get the opportunity to work with companies and organizations to develop projects, which will prepare you for your future career.

The information is correct as of October 2019.

Furniture giant IKEA was founded in Älmhult, south of Jönköping. Furniture designed from this region is some of the world’s top fashion designers. Other furniture giants like Zara and Mango are also based in Sweden.

From the south of Jönköping, you will be able to see preserved castles from the 16th century, visit the city of Gränna and experience the Swedish culture.

To get the most out of the summer school, social and cultural activities are included. These include:

• Welcome lunch
• Welcome dinner
• Dinner at a local restaurant
• Ice skating
• Visit to the castle of Örebro
• Social and cultural activities
• Pick-up service
• 24 hours/day access to the fitness and recreation center
• Wi-fi on campus
• Access to the library services

Global Perspectives on Health and Welfare

In this course, students will engage with health and welfare from a global perspective. They will learn about the historical evolution of ideas of nationhood and to consider the role of media in the construction of national identity in different contexts.

The aim of the course is to provide an understanding of the functioning disability and health (ICF), others.

Goals in relation to health and welfare. Some of the elements included are: healthcare, communication and health and welfare with the key elements for effective communication.

Networking

Networking is an important component of this course. Students will have the opportunity to meet students from other countries, resulting in a truly international environment.

Join one of JU Summer School Undergraduate courses this June and July. Pathway Students include:

• Fluency in English equivalent to at least 575
• 30 credits first cycle/undergraduate
• 60 credits first cycle/undergraduate
• 10 ECTS credits
• 5 ECTS credits

Pathway Summer

Join one of JU Summer School undergraduate courses this June and July.

The Pathway Summer course combines a general introduction to a subject area with a deeper understanding of that area through a number of lectures and seminars led by respected experts.

The Pathway SUMMER programme takes place JUNE 8 TO JULY 3, 2020.

The course will engage students in the contemporary media landscape. The ways in which media work will enable students to reflect on the meanings which political and social groups use media to communicate. The ways that the media is involved in their nationhood covers: The historical evolution of ideas of ascribed to nationhood and to consider the

Today Sweden attracts businesses from all over the world. Swedish companies are known for their quality, sustainability and innovation. Skype and Spotify are just two examples of Swedish innovations.

For complete course syllabus see: ju.se/pathway

Global Perspectives on Health and Welfare

Global Perspectives on Health and Welfare

Pathway Summer

Pathway Summer course combines a general introduction to a subject area with a deeper understanding of that area through a number of lectures and seminars led by respected experts.

The Pathway SUMMER programme takes place JUNE 8 TO JULY 3, 2020.

The course will engage students in the contemporary media landscape. The ways in which media work will enable students to reflect on the meanings which political and social groups use media to communicate. The ways that the media is involved in their nationhood covers: The historical evolution of ideas of ascribed to nationhood and to consider the

Today Sweden attracts businesses from all over the world. Swedish companies are known for their quality, sustainability and innovation. Skype and Spotify are just two examples of Swedish innovations.