EXPLORE GERMANY!

Welcome to Frankfurt
As a lively city, with a profusion of cultural activities to suit all tastes, Frankfurt has plenty to offer visitors. Regardless of your preferred leisure pursuits – museums, concerts, opera, cinema or theatre – you will find sufficiently of interesting things to see, listen to, visit and appreciate in Frankfurt. The promenade along the River Main is an inviting venue for a pleasant stroll or an invigorating run!

Excursion to Heidelberg
Yes, the Boot Camp features plenty of work and learning – but that does not mean that your two-week stay won’t also be enjoyable. As well as seeing the sights in Frankfurt, you’ll be making a trip to Heidelberg, where attractions include the world-famous castle, a vibrant student scene, many fine restaurants, shopping opportunities, and cultural offerings.

Optional Weekend Trip to Berlin on the weekend 6th-8th July. You can join us to Berlin and spend two days there to explore all the fantastic opportunities Germany’s capital has to offer!

AN INSPIRATIONAL, SPORTY 2-WEEK SUMMER EXPERIENCE

You did not choose to study Finance at your university, but now you are curious to find out more about the major financial products and investment strategies. You want a better understanding of the news; you dream about becoming the next George Soros — maybe you have even thought about going into banking after all.

20% Early Bird Discount - Register by 31 March 2018

Scheduled for summer 2018, Frankfurt School’s Boot Camp targets non-finance Bachelor and first-year Master students seeking to develop and/or deepen their financial skills in one of Europe’s leading financial centers: Frankfurt am Main.

When you opt for this course, you are also choosing to benefit from our immediate proximity to prestigious financial institutions such as the Commerzbank and the Deutsche Bundesbank, Germany’s own central bank.

The Boot Camp, due to be held on the Frankfurt School campus over two weeks in July 2018, will combine a challenging academic programme with plenty of opportunities to network with and enjoy the company of your fellow students. In addition, there will be plenty of occasions to engage in athletic activity for those who wish to — such as swimming or running in the morning!

CONTENT & OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this Boot Camp is to enhance the financial and banking knowledge of Bachelor and first-year Master students who want to know more about major banking and financial topics. The programme provides an introduction to the fields of finance and banking in a European context. If you would like to learn about the key aspects of finance and banking in just two weeks — this programme is the right one for you.

Demanding and intensive, it delivers all the banking essentials. Taught entirely in English, the Boot Camp attracts highly motivated students from around the world. Spending a fortnight abroad will give you additional international exposure. And last but not least, you will benefit from Frankfurt School’s excellent connections to banks, financial institutions and consulting firms. Participants are expected to be fluent in English.
