with the support of Center of Development of Legal Clinics, Russia

VIII SUMMER SCHOOL

"Future Lawyers & Economists: Essential Skills to Success"

20 – 29 AUGUST 2019

at the Baltic sea in Kaliningrad, Russian Federation

Why to apply for the Summer School in Kant University?

- The Summer School programme includes a unique set of interactive courses specially designed to develop a range of professional skills that would be of significant use to all future lawyers and economists.
- Courses will be taught by Professors from leading universities of the USA, UK, Germany, Hungary, Armenia and Russia as well as practitioners having rich experience in different spheres of legal work, politics and diplomacy.
- The languages of the Summer School are English and Russian separately.
- The Summer School program is the only one of this kind both in Russia and Europe that covers subject traditionally not taught in university curriculum

Here you will learn

- ✚ Statute drafting and managing a law firm
- ✚ Risk management and decision making in difficult business situations
- ✚ Legal argumentations and procedural documents preparation
- ✚ Contract drafting in English
- ✚ Personal Development and Professional Ethics
- ✚ Role of Law in Business and Business in Law
- ✚ Evidence analysis and Public speaking in Moot Courts and much more

Best Students from all over Russian and abroad will get together at the Baltic sea – we already have more than 500 alumni!

Application and Study

Summer School program includes study of three parallel groups (flows) of students:

- Legal flow: English speaking group – 20 students;
- Legal flow: Russian speaking group – 25 students;
- Economic&Legal flow: both Russian and English speaking group – 20 students.

Full cost of the School Program for one student is 700 Euros.

International travel and accommodation costs remain the responsibility of the participants.

Scholarships

Kant University announces 60 individual scholarships

Students who apply before July 1, 2019 are participating in the scholarship competition for the Immanuel Kant University Stipendium.

Immanuel Kant University Stipendium fully covers the educational part of the School program for one student which is 550 Euros.

Student who gets the scholarship only pays for organized meals during the education and teambuilding which is 150 Euros (at the registration desk upon arrival to the University)

After July 1, 2019 conditions are the subject of change:

Students chosen for the Program pay 500 Euros up to August 1, 2019 and

Full price after August 1, 2019

In addition to the main educational programme, the Summer School participants will be able to attend

- Lunchtime seminars (Brown Bag),
- Receptions

Moreover, an amazing team building exercise at the Baltic sea will form an integral part of the IKBFU Summer School; this encapsulates its challenging and resourceful spirit, a spirit that goes beyond simple academic ambition, but instead adopts the ‘work hard, play hard’ maxim.
